South Dundas CAO Announces Departure

MORRISBURG, ON - The Municipality of South Dundas announces the resignation of Chief Administrative Officer Tim Mills, effective February 21, 2025. Mills will become the Chief Administrative Officer for the City of Cornwall, on February 24, 2025.

During Mills' tenure, South Dundas achieved significant development milestones, continuing to lay the groundwork for expanded residential and commercial growth and enhanced municipal services. His leadership fostered innovation and strengthened service delivery standards across departments.

"Working with a Council dedicated to community engagement and good governance has been incredibly rewarding," said Mills. "The collaborative spirit of our senior leadership team and staff has made South Dundas an exceptional workplace."

"Tim's collaborative leadership style and commitment to excellence have significantly advanced our municipality," said Mayor Jason Broad. "His ability to bring together staff, Council, and community partners has created a lasting positive attitude and culture for South Dundas. We particularly value his focus on development and community-driven initiatives that will benefit our residents for years to come."

Council will begin the recruitment process for a new CAO immediately.
